

WHALES + WILDERNESS EXPEDITION

GUEST HANDBOOK

SPIRIT
OF THE WEST
ADVENTURES

TOUR OVERVIEW

PADDLE ONE OF THE MOST AMAZING KAYAK ROUTES IN CANADA

This tour explores the best of the Broughton Archipelago & Johnstone Strait, renowned destinations for scenic paddling and wildlife. Journey across the Johnstone Strait and Blackfish Sound, keeping your eye out for whales and other wildlife. Weave through the tiny islets of the Broughton Archipelago, exploring shorelines and passageways.

Every day, you'll paddle in new areas, setting up camp in a different location each night. One night will be spent at Paddlers Inn, a remote rustic floating lodge in Simoom Sound. Water taxi transport on one end means we are able to explore farther without backtracking.

Although there is a start and end point, there is no set route for this expedition. Your experienced guides will plan a winding route through the area, stopping at their favourite campsites and revealing all the secret spots and passageways that make this area so special. No two expeditions are the same.

The area we share with you on this tour is the traditional territory of the Kwakwaka'wakw people of the 'Namgis, Mamamlilikala, Kwikwasut'inuxw Haxwa'mis, Ławitsis, and Musgamagw Dzawada'enuxw nations. Learn more about the Kwakwaka'wakw people, land, and language on the U'mista Cultural Centre's website and the First Peoples' Map of BC.

WHAT TO EXPECT

KAYAKING

This is a one-way expedition travelling either north or south between Paddlers Inn (Simoom Sound) and Alder Bay. Each day on the water, you can expect to be paddling for 4-6 hours and cover 6-8 nautical miles per day (arrival & departure days will be shorter paddling days). You may encounter wind, currents, and crossings.

A fleet of good quality fibreglass kayaks will join your expedition. Typically, your group will have at least two double kayaks and the rest singles. Please be prepared to paddle different boats throughout your trip. Your group will be carrying everything you need in your kayaks, there is no support crew or resupply. For this reason, it is important to pack well and pack light. We will help you with this!

Our expeditions require everyone to work together as a team. Your assistance will be needed with loading, carrying and unloading kayaks as well as setting up and taking down camp. If you need help at anytime, please let us know.

CAMPING

There are many camping areas along your route. Most sites around the Johnstone Strait are well established with pit toilets and tent platforms. These sites can be popular in the peak of summer, but your guides will use their insider knowledge to find the best spots. Camping areas at the north end of the Broughton Archipelago are wilderness sites with few or no facilities.

Your guides will carry a portable toilet that will be placed in a private area at each of these backcountry sites. We practice Leave no Trace camping and encourage you to refresh yourself on the seven principles before arrival.

There is limited access to fresh water on this route. Handwashing stations will be set up at each lunch spot and campsite. Saltwater ocean dips can be used for bathing (be prepared for cold water!) You can also bring a face cloth to use with a bit of fresh water or wipes (must be packed out).

Cell service is patchy and you will not have access to electricity or charging stations throughout your trip. Please bring extra batteries or battery packs for phones and cameras.

Pacific coastal air is cool and moist. While some days are warm, once the sun goes down, the air temperature drops. Please pack clothing accordingly.

FOOD

All meals and snacks are included, from lunch day one to a lunch on your final day. We aim to serve healthy, hearty and delicious food. We are happy to accommodate many dietary restrictions with advance notice (please let us know 60 days in advance of tour start date; some dietary needs are subject to an additional fee). Learn more on our Food Page.

EXAMPLE ITINERARY

This example itinerary is flexible and may be adapted based on weather and group ability.

DAY 1

Once you have arrived at Alder Bay Resort & Marina, park near the boat ramp and look for the Spirit of the West meeting sign. Unload your gear near the sign and wait for a Spirit of the West team member who will meet you at the 11:30 am meeting time with further instructions.

At 11:30, your guides will pass out your drybags and demonstrate how to pack your gear for the expedition.

If you're on a northbound expedition, we'll take a short van shuttle to our launch point to begin paddling.

If you're on a southbound expedition, you'll jump aboard the Paddlers Inn water taxi and enjoy a scenic 2 hour journey up to Simoom Sound.

Upon arrival, your guides will lead a kayak orientation and if there's enough time, get you out on the water for an intro paddle.

Regardless of which direction you're heading, your guides will serve up some delicious appetizers and a hearty dinner to make sure you're fed and ready for a big day on the water the next day. Spend the evening relaxing, reading or chatting with new friends as you watch the sun dip below the horizon.

DAYS 2-5

Start the day with some hot coffee or tea and a tasty breakfast. After taking down camp, carry the boats down to the water, pack your kayak and push off for the day's adventure.

Throughout the day, your guides will share information about the region and the wildlife you may see. Along the way, we'll take a snack break and find a beach for a picnic lunch. Upon arrival, set up your tent before a delicious dinner cooked by your guides.

DAY 6

Northbound paddlers will wake up in a comfy bed at the Paddlers Inn, having already completed your journey. You'll have the morning to take in the delights of Simoom Sound, before loading your gear onto the water taxi around 10 am and heading back to Alder Bay for noon.

Southbound paddlers have one last push to make. Wake up early to enjoy the final few hours of in the Johnstone Strait. Gently paddle back to your end point, where you will be shuttled to Alder Bay for noon.

After unpacking your kayaks, eating a quick lunch and saying some fond farewells, most guests leave Alder Bay around 1 pm.

PACKING FOR YOUR ADVENTURE

Upon arrival in Alder Bay, your guides will provide you with waterproof dry bags to pack your clothing and personal items into. We typically provide three dry bags per person. Two of these dry bags (typically a 20L and 10L bag) will be for your personal items, like your clothes. Your sleeping bag and shoes will be packed separately. An additional 10L bag will be your lap bag, which you'll keep in your cockpit with you for anything you want easy access to when you are on the water. Your guides will help you pack when you arrive.

Spirit of the West provides the following: sleeping pad, inflatable pillow and pillowcase, tents, paddling equipment, lightweight camp chair, drybags, mini deckchair, and travel mug.

Spirit of the West does not provide a sleeping bag or raingear (rentals are available if ordered in advance, please contact us at least 30 days before your tour to rent).

THE GOLDEN RULES OF WILDERNESS CLOTHING

- Synthetic, wool & fleece are preferred for kayaking as they stay warm, even when wet.
- Dress in layers! Plan to have options to adjust for warmer or cooler weather.
- Be sure to check that your raingear is waterproof before arriving.
- Athletic gear you already own is often very suitable for kayaking. Ski base layers, yoga pants, hiking pants & running shirts are great options.
- Please note that in our coastal environment, wet clothing is unlikely to dry. Assume that once something is wet, it will stay wet or at least damp for the remainder of the trip, please plan accordingly.

WEATHER

The cool, nutrient dense waters of the northeast coast of Vancouver Island attract salmon, orcas, eagles, humpbacks, and other wildlife. These colder waters and ocean breezes make the region cool, even during the summer months. Typical daytime temperatures in June to September sit at around 19°C. Overnight temperatures can drop as low as 10°C. The shoulder season is cooler (June and September) and fleece and/or puffy jackets are recommended throughout the season, even in August. Early morning fog is common, and if winds are forecasted, they typically build throughout the day. Rainfall can occur anytime, even in the peak of summer. Please keep this in mind while packing!
